Classic fairy-tale appeal for modern sensibilities—a well-mannered but curious, daring, and intrepid heroine.

Emphasis on loyalty, family, nature, kindness.

Beautifully written.

- Springboard for creative activities in the classroom and at home.

- Discuss how the stories are like traditional fairy tales and how they differ
- Examine characters development: do they change from book to book, and if so how
- Determine which book is a favorite, tell or write why
- Pick a favorite character or magical being from one of the books and write a new story about them, perhaps adding your own illustrations
