It all starts with a present ... but nothing is safe from that rapacious reindeer—not even Santa himself! A merry, laugh-out-loud extravaganza!

- Based on the much-beloved song There Was an Old Lady Who Swallowed a Fly.
- Perfect for an interactive story time.
- Bold and bright artwork by award-winning illustrator.
- Guarantees giggles!

There was a young reindeer who swallowed a present.
I don't know why she swallowed the present.
How very unpleasant.

There was a young reindeer who swallowed a tree.
So tickly with tinsel she giggled with glee!

She swallowed the tree to show off the bauble.

She swallowed the bauble to give to the elf.
Who was wrapping up presents, this elf on a shelf.

She swallowed the elf to find the present.
I don't know why she swallowed the present.
How very unpleasant.
