

Hello again!

How many of you like dressing up? I used to love dressing up when I was little. Sometimes my sisters and I would even put on plays to entertain our parents, dressed up in homemade costumes. I bet they were very funny!

But did you know that some people make costumes and fancy hats for a job? How fun would that be? In this episode we get to meet neighbor Will, whose job it is to make costumes and very fancy hats.

Maybe you might like to make your own fancy hat from things you can find around the house, just like Billie and Jack? An empty ice cream container is a very good start!

Lots of love,
Sally
