Jukebox

By David Merveille

From France

About the Book

From disco to opera, hip hop to jazz, David Merveille's unique style makes this practically wordless picture book sing.

At the corner bistro, the jukebox takes center stage, inviting readers into a delightful musical universe. The profusion of details and the humor of the illustrations combine to show us that music may often reveal as much about the people who listen to it as it does about the people who play it.

About the Author / Illustrator

David Merveille has worked in advertising and publicity in France and Belgium. He lives in Brussels, where he listens to all kinds of music.
