

BABIES COME FROM AIRPORTS

Erin Dealey * Luciana Navarro Powell

Picture Book | 978-1-61067-557-4 | Ages 3-8 | Hardcover | 7 ¾ x 9 | 32 pp | $12.99 | LOC: 2016950682

Some babies come from the hospital, some come from airports, but all babies come from love.

- Diverse cast of characters.
- Child-friendly, rhyming text.
- Lively and colorful illustrations.
- Heartwarming adoption story for any and all kinds of families.

Review Praise

"This is a great book to give to kids who are adopted, whose families are in the process of adopting, or to explain international adoption in general to children." – Mom Read It

"... written from a child's point of view and focuses more on the airport arrival of a sibling joining the family through international adoption."

– Pitter Patter Art

"... a good resource for an engaging point of view lesson. ... This is one of the most touching picture books I have read in quite a while. It's a sweet tale about an important family moment."

– NC Teacher Stuff

"... a wonderful addition for family and library collections. It should be read to encourage all children to understand that although families are different, each has its own special story."

– A Field Trip Life

