Everyone knows that ducks always say quack ... or do they?

- Rhyming fun with playful onomatopoeia and an element of surprise!
- Ideal participatory readaloud!
- Bold, colorful, simple illustrations.
- Based on a real-life occurrence of a mama cat adopting a duckling!
- Awards: Texas 2x2 Reading List
New Zealand Picture Book of the Year

Review Praise

"... told in rollicking verse that scans beautifully ... The conclusion is satisfying, and the book's theme of inclusion makes it a lovely selection to bring to the attention of adoptive families." – Kirkus Reviews

"A lovely choice, whether at bedtime or storytime." – Booklist

"A strong purchase for storytime as well as general library collections" – Jean Little Library

"... imparts a complex message in an easily-understood way" – Children's Literature Comprehensive Database

"As a book to share with children in the classroom, during reading time, or as part of a Sunday school lesson, this book will be a winner, one to read and enjoy again and again." – Catholic Library World 95, volume 1
